The Association for the Study of Negro Life and History supplies THE JOURNAL OF NEGRO HISTORY to Active Members in good standing; the Executive Council elects the members and determines their duties and privileges. The membership fee is not the same as a subscription. Members may be otherwise assessed. Only persons may become Active Members.

Subscriptions: $7.00 per year; $2.50 per issue. Foreign subscriptions are 50c extra. Back issues of the JOURNAL are available at reduced cost in a bound set of 54 volumes, including an Index, covering the years 1916-1970. Single bound volumes I and II cost $15.00 each; other bound volumes cost from $10.00 to $15.00 each.

All editorial matters should be addressed directly to the editor at P. O. Box 7694, Baltimore, Maryland 21207. All administrative and other matters should be addressed to the Association at 1407 Fourteenth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005.

The Journal of Negro History denies liability for statements of facts and opinions by contributors.
